As tiers go by

Second thoughts on restructuring

By Andrew Milne

Municipal reeves met in closed session April 22 for further talks on local government restructuring.

The county government has committed to a process of review in which the amalgamation of some local governments, or complete elimination of either the county or municipal tier is being considered.

Anson, Hindon and Minden reeve, Jeanne Anthon, told The Times last week that her impression is that moving to a single tier, county-wide government is still considered an unlikely solution by most of those involved, partly because there would still be need for satellite offices to provide services across the county.

Anthon said there's also a growing feeling that restructuring may not be all it's cracked up to be, and that the local governments might well be further ahead to maintain their current structure, and look for cost savings in shared services and group purchasing.

Said Anthon, "The general reaction seems to be that we may only save five percent in restructuring, and considering how strongly some of us feel about the loss of autonomy in local municipal government, we really wonder if we're doing the right thing."

Also significant, said Anthon, is a feeling that the local governments are being pushed to carry out the process too quickly. Considering the rather long-term nature of such changes and the limited time line for the process, she says, they're becoming nervous.

Said Anthon, "I don't think any other county has made a decision in that short a time, so yes we are very concerned that we are moving too fast. We don't want to make a decision after the fact and discover that it was a gross error. I understand that it is very difficult to reverse any kind of amalgamation once it's in place. We will have to live with it for a long time."

Any restructuring plans are supposed to be in place by the end of this calendar year, in time for the 1997 municipal elections.

The provincial government has touted restructuring as a way of reducing the cost of local government. And when,

Father, son run down

A father and his three year old son were sent to hospital Friday after a vehicle careened out of control and struck both.

The accident happened during the early afternoon as Barry Cray was raking the lawn at the rear of the parking lot adjacent to the Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home in Minden. His son, Alex, was riding his tricycle on the paved lot.

A car, driven by Jim Walker of Minden, was travelling east on Deep Bay Road and had just completed the curve approaching the intersection. Rather than slowing to a stop, the vehicle cut sharply across the lawn, striking Barry Cray and sending him and the wheelbarrow he was working with, flying. The car continued onto the parking lot and struck the child on the tricycle before finally coming to a

Skippers raise over $5000 for charity

Students at Archie Stouffer Elementary School raised over $5000 for the local chapter of the Heart and Stroke Foundation last week. The youngsters participated in a skip-a-thon, in which they gathered pledges based on their participation. The school gymnasium was filled with flying ropes so some of the youngsters took their fund-raising efforts outdoors.

Wallace case will go to trial

By Andrew Milne

High school teacher Frank Wallace will stand trial on charges of sexual exploitation, probably some time next winter.

Wallace was in court April 24 in Minden. His defence counsel has waived the right to a preliminary hearing, meaning the matter automatically proceeds to trial. The decision to waive is not considered unusual in matters of this nature, and permits the lawyers to carry out a private inquiry — similar to a civil discovery, in which the witness — or alleged victim — testifies under oath in a closed courtroom, with only the lawyers and a court reporter present.

The defence has asked for and been granted a ban on publication of details of the trial, and therefore The Times cannot divulge any additional information.

Sexual exploitation is a Criminal Code charge, laid against persons in a position of trust, authority or dependency. It can involve sexual touching and/or invitation to the same by an adult with a young person (ages 14-18). It generally applies to persons such as teachers, parents, and counsellors.

Wallace was charged with five counts of the offence March 27, 1995. The OPP reported the allegations involve a single female victim.

A second set of charges — two charges of sexual assault — has also been laid against Wallace, by the police. The OPP reports those charges in-involved a former female student. Crown attorney Rick Bagg says another pre-trial hearing is expected within the next few months.

Wallace has been suspended, with pay, from his teaching duties pending disposition of the charges.

Wallace will be defended by David Humphrey, of the firm Greenspan, Humphrey, of Toronto.

stop after colliding with a brick chimney at the side of the building.

An ambulance arrived shortly after and numerous passers-by stopped to assist. Since there was only one ambulance available at the time, the child was taken to the Minden Hospital first. Attendants quickly returned to transport the father to the same facility.

There was concern that the youngster may have suffered a concussion in the collision, however, after treatment for cuts and bruises, he was released from the hospital.

Barry Cray sustained a multiple fracture to one leg and later Friday afternoon was taken by air ambulance to St. Michaels Hospital in Toronto. An operation to repair the leg the was performed Saturday and the man is reported to be doing well. Doctors are also concerned that he may have sustained injuries to his hip or back.

The vehicle was impounded by the police following the mishap. According to the investigating officer, Terry Allore, the car, which was recently purchased by Walker, will be examined for possible mechanical defects, especially relating to the accelerator.

The investigation into the incident continues.

Once the initial shock of the accident had subsided, Kirsten Cray, wife and mother of the victims, expressed relief that the consequences of the accident had not been more serious. She also expressed her gratitude for the outpouring of community support which followed the mishap. "Everyone has been calling to offer help and support," she commented on Sunday. "It is heartwarming and gratifying to know the people care so much."

Those sentiments were repeated by her parents, Gord and Donna Monk. "We have been overwhelmed by the support the community has shown," Donna Monk said.

"I'm just so thankful that medical services were available in our community," Gordon commented, referring to the Minden Hospital.

Student jury finds culprit guilty as charged

by Jerry Grozelle

A courtroom drama unfolded in Minden Friday. Literally.

The Grade 12 Drama Class from Haliburton Highlands Secondary School acted out a courtroom play for the benefit of Grade 6 students from J.D. Hodgson and Archie Stouffer elementary schools. The Grade 6 students were participants in the Ontario Provincial Police-sponsored VIP (Values, Influences and Peers) Program and the session in court was the finale of the program.

Constable Ron Buchanan, who co-ordinates the VIP Program, made arrangements with HHSS drama teacher Michele Shapiro to obtain the services of the drama class. Buchanan provided details of an actual case, which involved two charges of break and enter, theft of property and a car theft.

Based on that case, drama student Adam Dunn wrote a script, changing the names, locations and some of the details to suit the situation.

Buchanan explained the basic court procedures to the standing room only crowd in the courtroom. A jury of half a dozen Grade 6 students was chosen and the trial began.

The accused, John William Smith, played by Jennifer Pearce, was led from the holding cell into the courtroom in handcuffs. The judge (Sarah Johnson) asked the defendant's plea, to which the reply was, "Not guilty."

Several witnesses for both the prosecution and the

The accused, 'John William Smith', played by Jennifer Pearce, left, stands with his lawyer, played by Mandy Harrison, as the charges of theft, break and enter and car theft are read. The scene was part of a mock trial presented for Grade 6 students in the Minden court room Friday. The jury of students found the accused guilty, the same verdict returned by the jury which deliberated in the real case on which the presentation was based.

Constable 'William Bundy' played by Adam Dunn was a key witness in the trial and also the student who wrote the script for the mock trial.

defence were called and written statements from other witnesses were read by court clerk Rachel Gartshore.

One witness, Ellen Wahlberg (Emily Alverey) testified during questioning by the Crown prosecutor (Lisa Packard) that she saw the accused emerge from a cottage carrying a TV or VCR and get into a car. She recorded the licence number and called the police.

Constable Ron Buchanan (Justin Rowden) testified that he ran a check on the licence plate and discovered that the car had been stolen. He said he circulated the description and licence number of the stolen car to police support personnel in the area and it wasn't long before the vehicle was located.

Paula O'Donnell (Tania Mastervick) stated under oath that she had checked the cottage of a neighbour and found the door open and property missing.

Another witness, Angela Mutton (Angela Dunn), said that she had seen the accused put a small oak keg into the trunk of the same car. The keg turned out to be stolen as well. It contained about $600 worth of coins.

Testimony was also heard from constable Kim Hatfield (Melissa Rowell), who said she followed the accused in her cruiser. He had abandoned the stolen car and fled on foot.

During the trial a heckler, (Jay Grant), who insisted that the accused was guilty, was cited for contempt of court and taken away by the bailiff (Sean Howden).

Defence lawyer (Mandy Harrison) tried to discredit the testimony of constable Hatfield by suggesting that she hadn't actually seen the defendant's face during the time she was following the stolen car.

Constable William Bundy (Adam Dunn), who was driving an unmarked car and not in uniform, testified that he had picked the accused up hitch-hiking not far from where he had abandoned the stolen car. Smith was subsequently arrested. Bundy also stated that Smith's running shoes and socks were wet, indicating that he had travelled through some wet terrain.

Defence counsel called Tim Morissette (Derek Rodley) to the stand. She tried to establish a motive for Morissette to frame Smith. During her questioning, she established that Morissette and Smith had been friends until Morissette learned that Smith was having an affair with his wife.

During the trial the court reporter (Greg Robinson) recorded the testimony. Meanwhile, the mother of the accused (Marianne Harvey) sobbed throughout most of the proceedings.

After summation by both the prosecutor and the defence counsel, the members of the jury left the courtroom to deliberate. While they were out, the real constable Buchanan went over the evidence with the students in the courtroom. He pointed out that the jury in the trial on which the mock trial was based, had found the defendant guilty.

The mock jury concurred, returning with a guilty verdict.

Sentence was passed and the court was adjourned.

Along with his role as Tim Morisette, Derek Rodley was also the cameraman. He set up a video camera in the corner of the courtroom and filmed the proceedings.

Desiree Sinning was a student director of the play.

The entire courtroom drama was repeated the same afternoon, this time with the Grade 6 VIP Program students from Minden's Archie Stouffer Elementary School in the audience. Wilberforce and Gooderham area VIP participants will also have the opportunity to view the drama.

The play is interactive, in that the audience will determine which road the actors take. The focus is on the peer pressure the younger students will face when they get to high school (and possibly before) regarding the use of alcohol, smoking and marijuana.

The first performances will be May 8 at J.D. Hodgson Elementary School, starting at 1 and 2 p.m. The following day the troupe will perform at ASES, starting at 10 and 11 a.m. and on May 13, the play will be presented at Wilberforce, with an 11 a.m. start.

We have often printed letters from individuals who have extolled the value of the services received at the Minden Hospital, especially those rendered by the staff of the emergency department. The letters are moving, personal testimonials to the value and need for the service in Minden. As touching as those accounts are for us, and for most of our readers, they often relate events that have little direct impact on our lives. We are gratified by the fact that those in need are able to find the service available, efficient and close at hand, but somehow human nature requires we insert distance between us and the suffering of others we do not know.

That distance was dramatically shortened Friday when we looked out our front window and saw two bodies on the pavement of the parking lot across the street. A father and his young son had been struck by a car and were crying out in agony and shock. The ambulance crew and police were already on the scene and numerous passersby had stopped to render assistance.

The horror of the scene sank in as we crossed the street to investigate. Amid the debris of a twisted tricycle and broken wheelbarrow, the emergency personnel scrambled between the two injured bodies. While the ambulance crew and volunteers worked efficiently to minister to the victims, fear and concern was etched on the faces of those who looked on. Quickly the injured bodies were transferred to the Minden Hospital, where, just as quickly, skilled doctors and nurses did what they could to ease the pain and suffering.

Fortunately, the child was not seriously injured. The father required major surgery and was taken by air ambulance to Toronto, where, we understand, a long road to recovery lies ahead of him.

As the ambulance screamed away and we attempted to return to our normal routine, we couldn't help but think how vital the emergency service provided at the Minden Hospital is to this community. The incident served to strengthen our resolve that the hospital and the community it serves need, and yes deserve, the services and security offered by an emergency department that is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Anyone who suggests otherwise has obviously not experienced what we did last Friday.

Wild animals

Editor:

The attack on the poor girl at the Haliburton Forest was tragic.

While the people who set up this wolf compound may have had good intentions it looked like an accident waiting to happen. Why do the animals have to die for the mistakes of humans.

Did the wolves have to die? Were the wolves only doing what comes naturally to wild animals?

We humans have to remember that, if anything, wild animals are unpredictable. As a cottager I've seen people going to the dump in the evening to watch and even feed the bears. There they are, walking around while the bears rummage through the nearby garbage. If someone gets hurt, you can bet it's the bear that will be shot.

Let's leave wild animals in the wild where they belong. As for the ones we run into around our cottages, let's give them a little space.

Foxes and the hens

Editor:

When will Canadians stand up for themselves?

While not professing to hold a degree in political science, it does not take a genius to see that we Canadians are not only taking a slap in the face, but we are being institutionally robbed and driven to what I feel is a hidden form of slavery.

While the average middle-class working person is paying the highest taxes and barely enjoying an existence, Harris and his cronies are telling us that golf club memberships and tailored suits are necessities of life.

While Shelia Copps and the rest of the Liberal Party lie straight to our faces and defend their dishonest, disgraceful scheme to tax us even more, we sit back and allow it.

It is not the social system that needs an overhaul, it is the political system and it's members that do. If we began to demand that the salaries of politicians were lowered so that they were on the scale with the working class, the insincere would quickly disappear. God knows, we may not have a government.

While Tsobouchi tries to cunningly distract the masses with snitch lines, telling us that social service payments are the cause of the strife, the fox (govern-

Good people out there

Editor:

I am writing to let the community know there are still good people out there.

On Sunday, April 21, our son, Shane, became very ill. His sister, Stacey, and I took him to the Minden Hospital. He was suffering from a severe headache, neck pain and a high temperature.

After a very quick and efficient examination by the doctor on duty, He suggested that Shane be taken to Lindsay for a blood test and a spinal tap to check for meningitis. That word was one I had dreaded to hear.

Some 16 years ago, we had been through the same situation with our daughter, so I knew what the word meant.

I made a quick call home to my husband, Jim, who was looking after the two smaller children. To save time, Jim suggested we get to Lindsay as soon as possible and not bother to return home to pick him up. As I looked at Stacey with a tear in her eye, trying not to let Shane see how frightened I was, the only person who came to my mind to get us there safely but quickly was Sonya Smith.

With a quick phone call, Sonya was at the hospital in a few minutes and we were soon heading due south in her van.

In Lindsay, Shane was quickly examined by the doctors. The next few hours, waiting for the test results, seemed like the longest hours of our lives.

He went through a very painful procedure, but he couldn't have made it without the support of Sonya hanging onto his hand and reassuring him that everything was going to be just fine. All she had to do was smile or crack a joke to keep a happy atmosphere around a dreary hospital.

A special thanks goes out to the doctors and nurses at the Minden Hospital; their quick service was greatly appreciated. Another thanks goes out to Sonya Smith for all her help and support with our son. She is a very generous, wonderful person, and we know we are not the only ones in Minden who appreciate having her around. They say friends come and go: but, true friends last forever.

Jim and Sharon Walker,
Stacey, Shane, Kevin and Sherri,
Minden.

Heads full of propaganda

ment) is cleaning out our henhouse.

We are all too busy blaming each other and defending our own cause to stand guard at that henhouse, when one day we will discover it is empty and the fox has a half million dollar pension and is now retired in Barbados.

What better way to keep the masses less powerful and informed than to keep them busy and fill their heads with propaganda?

If we Canadians allow this to happen we will be stooping to our lowest level. The politician jokes no longer that; for when we get that small sense of power from the humorous comments we make, that politician is laughing at us all the way to the bank, with our money.

What is the difference between the slave owner who demands forced labour, and a government which demands labour and then steals all the benefits of that labour (namely your money) in the form of unreasonable taxes.

Nunziata is the only person who seems to be on guard at the henhouse, but unfortunately he is outnumbered.

It is up to us as Canadians to no longer sit back and allow ourselves to be kicked in the face by lying politicians.

It is also in our better interest to support politicians like Nunziata who defend us, the people, and demand that there be more like him.

Take time to make that phone call or write that letter; it will only cost you a little time.

If you don't it will cost you and your children a lot more later.

Sheri Fallis-Hawkins,
Minden.

Microphone follies

I was remembering, with a wince, my most embarrassing moment on the job.

This would be nearly twenty years ago. I was a humble announcer-operator at a humble radio station in Thunder Bay, Ontario. Which is to say, I read the weather, punched up the station breaks, cued up records and gossiped with the guys from the news department.

Once you learn the basics, it's a job that an average chimpanzee could hold down, which leads to boredom. Which leads to distractions.....

Which may explain why I was on the telephone in the control room, murmuring Sweet Nothings to my Inamorata one Friday evening. Well, why not? There was a long record playing--the wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald, I think--news was a good 20 minutes away, everyone else had gone home for the weekend....

And that's when the Code Red Phone rang.

The Code Red Phone was a special line that got right through to the radio control room no matter what.

We knew that the Code Red Phone never rang unless:

a: The Russians had launched an all-out nuclear attack.

b: The dreaded Big One had struck, swallowing California, Vancouver Island and possibly even Kamloops.

c: Elvis had been found alive and well, in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, or d: The station manager desired to speak to you. Urgently.

In my case, it was the station manager. He wasn't happy. He wasn't even coherent.

But I finally managed to decipher the message he wanted to convey. It was:

YOUR MICROPHONE IS OPEN!!

Telling a radio broadcaster his mike is open is very much like telling a normal guy his fly is open. It means the same thing. You are exposed. Perfect strangers are learning all kinds of things about you that you really don't want them to know. In my case, the entire world was learning what kind of idiotic things I cooed in my partner's ear when the lights were low.

Fortunately for me, the only listener my program had was the station manager. Other broadcasters have been less lucky. Such as the poor sap who got to interview the famous actor Walter Pigeon on live radio. His opening line: "Mr. privilege, it is indeed a pigeon."

Harry Von Zell the famous American Radio announcer, whose career spanned several decades--amazing when you consider that early on, Von Zell told the nation on live radio, "And now, the president of the United States, Mister Hoobert Heever."

Black'n White

by Arthur Black

We have had our screw-ups this side of the border as well. I can still hear the CBC announcer in Ottawa introducing a new member of the Trudeau cabinet as "The Minister of Wealth and Hellfire." I actually have on tape a radio guy in Montreal crooning "remember...at Pharmusave, we fill your prescriptions with scare and kill...."

And who can forget that network news announcer who once signed off across the nation with this intonation:

"This...is the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation."

The worst blooper I ever heard happened to a skinny young kid on his first job at a tiny radio station in Texas 30 years ago. Part of his job involved actually throwing the switch to put the station on the air at 6:00 a.m. each morning.

Wasn't a big deal--the first half hour was a recorded sermon by a travelling preacher who happened to be a favourite of the station owner. All he had to do was put the record on and then head down to the local burger joint to grab a fast food breakfast. He always had time to scoff down his chow and get back before the record ended.

Almost always. There was the morning that the record....got stuck.

The skinny kid got back to the station just in time to hear the radio saying

'GO TO HELL. GO TO HELL. GO TO HELL.'

Apparently the radio station had been broadcasting the same message for the past 20 minutes.

The bad news: the skinny kid got fired from his job.

The good news: his name happened to be Dan Rather. So things turned out pretty good in the end.

Is one tier local government the way to go?

in the last budget, transfers to the lower tier governments were reduced, county councillors stated that they felt those cuts, or those coming, would effectively force restructuring on local governments, by making especially the smallest of them entirely unviable.

But since then, says Anthon, county councillors have looked around to see other local governments that went through similar review processes, and which decided against restructuring.

Says Anthon, "Perhaps restructuring has forced us to more seriously consider sharing services, and in that way it's a beneficial process. It's my impression that the government is particularly talking restructuring and amalgamations, but a lot of counties are resisting... A lot of workshops that have been put on recently by planners or Municipal World are not in favour of it. They're saying there are a lot of disadvantages, and that you can do all of those things through the sharing of services, and group purchasing."

Said Anthon, "We know we should be doing this as a practical business review... Every business should be taking a good look at operations, and asking is there a way of doing it better, so we can justify what we're doing. But we wonder if we're moving too fast."

Public meetings on any proposed restructuring will begin in July.

Teddy bears heading north

Members of the Treehouse and Treeclimbers clubs at the Minden Bible Church display the many teddy bears purchased with donations. The bears are to be sent to the Shanty House Bible Camp near Parry Sound. The camp is operated by the Shantymen's Christian Association for Native children in the area. The teddy bears will be used in the camp's program.

Two HHSS badminton teams advance to All-Ontario championships

by Anna Tomlinson

Haliburton did it again! Two Redmen teams qualified last Tuesday for the all Ontario Badminton Championship Tournament which will be held in Sault Ste. Marie this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

"Wild" Will Wallace's performance was the highlight of the day on Tuesday, as he came away the undefeated COSSA champion. Will dominated each game he played in the men's singles division with both skill and intellect - proving the gold COSSA medal belonged to him.

Stacey Bunn and Jody Reid added a silver medal to Will's gold, and also qualified themselves for OFSSA badminton. Stacey, who qualified for last year's OFSSA badminton competition, and Jodi, who has also played several years of competitive badminton, were able to use their experience to come from behind and win a tough final match. Together they earned every ounce of their silver medal by overpowering each of their opponents.

Although unable to qualify for OFSSA badminton, Bobbi Griffin and Jamie Thiverge in mixed doubles, and Anna Tomlinson, in ladies singles, played extremely well and missed the top two placings by a narrow margin. Their strong individual performances made the difference when the team points were tallied -- making the COSSA trophy Haliburton's for the third year in a row.

Haliburton's Junior badminton team also competed at the COSSA championship tournament last week. The ladies doubles team of Amber-Lee Cully and Nicki Gauley came home with a ribbon after playing their best badminton of the season. The girls played really well and just missed a medal placing after a close game against Weldon. This was Amber and Nicki's last year playing in the junior division, but they carry with them a high level of skill and experience which will benefit them in the senior division next year.

In mixed doubles another strong performance was given by Graeme Fawcett and Freya Lilius. Playing against the hardest competition they had faced all year, Graeme and Freya rose to the challenge, but were unable to capture a medal.

Coach Paton said, "Both teams played really hard all season, improved their level of play and should be very proud of their accomplishments."

Congratulations once again to all the players, and best of luck to Will, Stacey, and Jody this week at the OFSAA championships.

Moose tag application deadline May 15

The Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR) has issued a reminder that the deadline for applications for this year's moose hunt validation tag draw is Wednesday, May 15. A valid Outdoors Card is required along with the moose licence. For those who need to renew their Outdoors Card, renewal applications must be received at least three weeks prior to the May 15 deadline to ensure they receive their cards in time to participate in the draw. Cards can be renewed by mail or by telephone.

Renewal application forms were mailed to Outdoors Card holders before the expiry date. They can also be obtained by calling 1-800-387-7011. Hunters may also renew their cards directly by telephone by calling the automated Outdoors Card renewal hot line at 1-800-288-1155. Telephone renewals provide faster service. Be sure to have your old Outdoors Card and your credit card handy when you make the call.

Card holders whose card expires in 1996 should make sure the MNR has their current address. To report a change of address, contact the ministry at the toll free 1-800-387-7011 line.

Successful moose tag validation applicants will be notified during the first two weeks of August.

It's not too late to have a great-looking body this summer.

HCSA honours volunteers and supporters

Andrew Milne

The Haliburton County Snowmobile Association (HCSA) honoured 80 of its finest this weekend at its annual general meeting and awards ceremony.

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the organization. The HCSA was founded in 1971.

MPP Chris Hodgson, Chamber of Commerce manager Brian Dean, and county warden Murray Fearrey were present to thank the club for its contribution to the county.

Said Hodgson, "Sometimes it's overlooked, the importance to our local economy of snowmobiling. We've had a great year... And it's due to your efforts, the volunteers throughout the organization. You make it possible. And I congratulate you. You've made this a world class, first rate operation, and you've put Haliburton on the map."

Fearrey thanked the club and its volunteers for their contribution to the county, congratulated them for their efforts in moving towards more dry-land trails, and said the county would continue to support the association in its efforts.

"I think there isn't a member of county council that I've talked to that doesn't appreciate the impact of snowmobiling," said Fearrey.

Said Dean, "I'm here to say thank you, from the people that earn their actual bread and butter from snowmobiling, and that's the resort owners, and the main street business people... There are over 150 people in resorts alone who have jobs because of you. Without the trails, they wouldn't be working at all... From the standpoint of the Chamber of Commerce, from the standpoint of business, from the standpoint of families, I say thank you."

THANK YOU: HCSA representative, Chris Bullerick, left, congratulates and thanks Bob Picard for his dedication and service to the snowmobile association during the past winter. Picard, a groomer operator, was one of many volunteers recognized by the snowmobile club Saturday night at a banquet marking the end of the season.

LOOKING FOR A BIDDER: Auctioneer Max Radiff, left, scans the crowd for a bid as Neil Berry holds a two story bird house up for sale during the second annual Kinmount Committee for Planning and Economic Development Committee auction, held Saturday at the Galway Hall. The event, which included a dinner, attracted a packed hall. Proceeds from the auction will be used to support the Austin Sawmill and Park Development project in the community.

Community patrol and citizen nab vandals

(The following is an update on a report which appeared in last week's newspaper.)

William Stromberg of the Minden and Area Police Support Association (MAPSA) was on patrol during the early hours of April 20. With the assistance of Kyle Mann, three young offenders were caught trying to break into McMahon's Feeds 'N Needs on Bobcaygeon Road, Minden. The youths were detained and police were summoned.

Police say that a group of youths vandalized public and private property after leaving a party.

The three youths have been charged. The matter is still under investigation and further charges may be laid.

OPP investigating officer constable Ken Wesley said the Police Support Association volunteers were instrumental in apprehending the individuals responsible.

"We wouldn't have caught them without their help," Wesley said.

Carpentry apprentice awarded bronze medal at provincial skills competition

Mark Thompson of Minden was a bronze winner at the April 18 Provincial Skills competition. Thompson was one of eight people competing in the carpentry (individual) class. The event was held at the Copps Coliseum in Hamilton.

Thompson said the competition, which is sponsored by the Ontario Training and Adjustment Board (OTAB) and Skills Canada, included a one-hour written test and then the competitors had six hours to build a set of stairs.

"It was quite an experience," Thompson said.

More than 500 Ontario high school, post secondary and apprentice students were competing in 35 categories, from carpentry, plumbing and brick masonry to architectural computer assisted drafting, electronic publishing and cosmetology. Contestants are nomi-

The 33 year-old is enrolled in the carpentry apprentice program at Sir Sandford Fleming College. It was through the college that he became involved in the competition. He has worked with James Howe Builder Limited in Minden for the past eight years.

Thompson has recently received his intermediate and advanced certificates. He is currently working toward his Provincial Certificate of Qualification.

Messiah Choir prepares for May 25 Elijah oratorio

by Andrew Milne

"It's very powerful music — very moving... And it's very different from other work we've done," says Melissa Stephens.

The Haliburton Messiah Choir will be performing Mendelssohn's Elijah later next month.

The Elijah oratorio is a major, classic work, on the scale of Handel's Messiah, but, says Stephens, the music is of a distinctly different character — making more use of harmony (where different parts are written to complement a single melody) and less of polyphony (where each part is a melody in its own right).

Says Stephens, "Handel is from the Baroque era, and there are a lot of passages where every part is singing different words... with Mendelssohn there's more use of the chorus, singing in harmony. The effect can be very, very powerful."

Though singing Mendelssohn's harmony is probably a little easier on the choir than is Baroque polyphony, Stephens expects challenges ahead.

Says Stephens, "There's also a lot more interplay between the soloists and the chorus... There's a lot of solo work, but quite often the chorus will be singing responses, interacting and reacting a lot more. And that's something a little new... We're just getting to working on that now, and I'm expecting it to be, well, interesting."

John Miller will be singing the part of Elijah.

It's a relatively unusual work for a community choir to do. Says Stephens, "We have the one couple driving up from Toronto because one of them wants to do this, and doesn't know if he'll ever get another chance."

An oratorio is a biblical story set to music. Elijah is the story of the old testament prophet Elijah.

The choir is performing the work May 25 at the Haliburton Legion, and May 26 at Archie Stouffer school in Minden. Tickets are $10, and are available at Nancy's Flowers and Minden IDA.

An eclectic evening of theatre

Members of the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School Drama Club delighted audiences two evenings (April 19 and 20) with their spring presentations.

The dramatic selections were presented in two sections. The first was a contemporary offering by Ted Moser, called Impromptu.

As the title implies, the audience is given the impression when the curtain opens that the four characters appear to be on stage without a script. The stage manager, we are informed, has told the four to go out and perform something.

As the actors work their way through this dilemma, they uncover layers of their character and personality that surprise themselves.

The audience enjoyed what appeared to be an unscripted piece of free-form theatre, but was actually a tightly scripted, revealing piece of theatre.

Impromptu featured Jenn Orpana, Bob Sisson, who also directed the play, Kevin Brezina and Kate Campbell.

The second half of the evening was a delightful sampling of scenes from Shakespeare. Under the direction of Jeremy Scheffee and staff advisors Wayne Cooper and Bob Penfold, the students offered an interesting selection of snippets from nine of the bard's favourites. The scenes featured included:

The Taming of the Shrew (act 2 scene 1) with Amanada Chalmers as Katherina and Shaun Turner as Petruchio;

The Merchant of Venice (act 4, scene 1) with Amanda McClenaghan as Portia;

Twelfth Night (act 3, scene 1 and act 3, scene 1) Amanda as Maria, Kari Baker as Viola, Erin Kernohan as Olivia and Jeremy Scheffee as Malvolio;

The Merry Wives of Windsor, (act 3, scene 3) with Erin Kernohan as Rob, Jeremy Scheffee as Falstaff, Cassie Weyrich as Mrs. Ford and Teresa Jago as Mrs. Page;

Macbeth, (act 1, scene 5) with Kari Baker as the messenger and Jess Berry as Lady Macbeth;

Othello, (act 4, scene 3), with Shaun Turner as Othello, Cassie Weyrich as Desdemona and Erin Kernohan as Emilia;

Richard the Second, (act 3, scene 2), with Tom O'Shaughnessy as Richard;

Romeo and Juliet, (act 3 scene 5 and act 5, scene 3) with Teresa Jago as Lady Capulet, Sarah Levis as Juliet, Shaun Turner as Paris, Tom O'Shaughnessy as Romeo, and Jeremy Scheffee as Friar;

As You Like It, (act 2, scene 7) with the whole company.

Staff adviser Wayne Cooper introduced each of the vignettes, setting the scene for the audience. Carol Mowat and Jess Berry were responsible for costumes and make-up.

Bob Sisson and Kate Campbell in a scene from the HHSS Drama Club's presentation of Impromptu.

Phonebusters Sergeant Barry Elliott will be at Stanhope meeting

Meeting will explain how to avoid telephone fraud

by Jerry Grozelle

The increasing incidence of telephone fraud has prompted the Stanhope-Carnarvon Police Support Association to arrange for Detective Sergeant Barry Elliott to address the subject at a Phonebusters meeting on May 9. Elliott is with the fraud investigation squad of the OPP in North Bay. He will inform the public of the types of telephone scams to watch out for and how to avoid becoming a victim. The meeting will be held at the Stanhope Community Centre on North Shore Road at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 9. There is no charge for admission.

Telephone solicitations, or telemarketing, are a very common method of selling services for many legitimate businesses. But, there are some unscrupulous telephone solicitors whose only purpose is to swindle unsuspecting people.

If someone calls you on the telephone and offers something that sounds too good to be true, it probably is. That advice has been offered many times, but still many people fall victim to telephone scams.

Constable Ron Buchanan of the Minden OPP says the typical scam artist will call and tell the victim that he or she has won a car. The victim is then told that he or she must send a certified cheque to cover the GST or some other tax or surcharge. The victim is given a 1-800 telephone number to call if there is any problem.

"The victim doesn't hear anything after sending the certified cheque by registered mail," Buchanan says. "The victim calls the 1-800 number and the person on the other end says the cheque was never received. The scam artist convinces the victim that the deadline to receive the windfall is drawing near and tells the victim to send another certified cheque right away to avoid missing out on the win.

"He says he'll tear up the first cheque if it finally turns up," Buchanan explained.

The amount is often several hundred dollars and if the victim falls for the 'lost in the mail trick', he or she will lose twice as much.

That is only one of many ways unscrupulous operators bilk their victims. Once a person has been victimized, his or her name goes on a "sucker list" and becomes a target for other scam artists. The sucker lists are also valuable to these parasites, who sell them to others of the same ilk.

Buchanan said that some con artists even pose as former police officers, telling victims that they can get their money back. They sometimes tell the victims that they aren't working within the letter of the law, but that they have had a relative or friend who had lost money through a telephone scam. The victim is asked for front money, usually a percentage of what they have already lost, to finance the retrieval of their money.

Con artists are continuing to come up with new and inventive ways to separate the vulnerable from their savings.

Buchanan highly recommends the Phonebuster seminar at the Stanhope Firefighters Hall on May 9 as a way for people to arm themselves against the fraud.

Sherbourne adopts alcohol management policy

After almost a year of committee meetings and public consultation meetings, an Alcohol Management Policy has been developed and adopted by the Township of Sherbourne et al.

Last May, a Municipal Alcohol Policy committee was formed with representatives from the Township of Lake of Bays. Both Townships found it advantageous to develop their policies together since facilities and user groups overlap in some cases.

The Addiction Research Foundation (A.R.F.) was vital in the development of the policies. The goal of the committee was to reduce liability risks for special occasion permit holders volunteer workers, participants and the Townships. Other goals are to enhance community enjoyment of municipal parks and facilities and to provide for the health and safety of the public.

At the March 18, meeting of the Council, the Township of Sherbourne et al adopted by resolution its new Alcohol Management Policy. The council of the Township of Lake of Bays adopted its policy by resolution February 28.

cohol Management Policy. The council of the Township of Lake of Bays adopted its policy by resolution February 28.

The new policy is not intended to stop people from consuming alcohol but rather to provide guidelines as to how alcohol service and consumption can be managed safely and responsibly in municipally owned facilities. The policy came into effect April 1.

Two primary aspects of the policy deal with liability and server training. As of April 1, Special Occasion Permit events will require event sponsors to have liability insurance and at least one server at the event "server trained". Server training courses will be offered throughout the year to get as many people trained as possible. Those who have taken the Server Intervention Program (S.I.P.) are considered trained servers.

S.I.P. was recently replaced by the course called Smart Serve.

Scalers make the grade

Members of the hardwood lumber inspection program at the Haliburton campus of Sir Sandford Fleming College received their graduation diplomas last Friday afternoon. The students had successfully completed the scaling course that included classroom study, practical experience and a work term. The members of the graduating class included Bill Beers, Eric Calver, James Cowen, Kim Cowen, Evan Dombroskie, Ray Geady, Kevin Gibbons, Christopher Kerr, Raymond Luckavitch, Murvin Mantieffel, John Miller, Robert Safruk, Carl Sills, Joseph Wilson and David Young.

Victoria County CUPE employees

Workers asked to absorb roll-backs

Negotiators for Victoria County have tabled a series of massive takeaways at the bargaining table, aimed at wrestling major monetary concession from three different employee groups, according to a press release issued by the union.

As a result, CUPE Locals 855, 855-09 and 1167 have launched a joint public information campaign to fight what they say amounts to a bald-faced - and unnecessary - attack on local public services throughout the county.

After three years of wage roll-backs under the Social Contract, county employees are now being asked to open their collective agreements so that Victoria County can roll back wages even more - as much as 30% for some unionized employees.

Dave Saunders, CUPE National representative for the three CUPE locals which represent county inside and outside workers, and employees at Victoria Manor, said "the county is completely out of sync with the other contract settlements being reached in the region."

Says Saunders, "other local governments in the region are currently signing agreements with none of these harsh cuts, and there's even modest wage increases in many of these settlements."

The number of items on Victoria County's "hit list" are staggering; wages, overtime provisions, job security and paid break, among others.

The public information campaign being launched by the three CUPE locals includes ads on local radio and in community newspapers, as well as information leaflets to be handed out to the county residents. The three CUPE locals represent 240 Victoria County employees.

Delegates chosen for W.I. annual meeting

Jean Cox, president of Minden Women's Institute, opened the April 17 meeting at the Library/Cultural Centre by explaining why the Women Institute's colours are gold and royal blue. The usual opening was held. Special thanks to Doris Grant for arranging this room for our meeting.

The roll call of Show And Tell resulted in a display of craft items made by the members during the winter.

Delegates to the Victoria East District Annual Meeting on May 8 will be president Jean, secretary Mary and Bette Herlihey. Planning was done for this meeting. Students from Archie Stouffer Elementary School will be providing entertainment. A donation of $50 will be going to the school for some special need.

Our Pennies for Friendship for the past year were $33.80 and this amount will be forwarded to ACWW for expenses. Irene Moore gave her report of sending nine cards since the last meeting and took collections for this fund. Members then paid their dues for the coming year. The public relations officer's report was given by Jeanne. She expressed her appreciation that The Times and Haliburton County Echo print her reports after each meeting.

The treasurer, Mary

Wilson, told us that her books had been audited and the auditor's report was accepted.

President Jean Cox then gave her program convenor's report. She thanked us for our cooperation, especially the conveners. As positions on the executive were not filled, the slate of officers will be reported at the next meeting which will be held May 15, 2 p.m., at the home of Bea Berry.

After adjournment, all enjoyed a social half hour, with delicious snacks and tea, and a chat with friends. Mabel Deacon was the lucky winner of the little draw.

AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF COUNCIL, INHABITANTS AND RATEPAYERS OF THE CORPORATION OF THE UNITED TOWNSHIPS OF LAXTON, DIGBY AND LONGFORD

We have audited the consolidated balance sheet of the Corporation of the United Townships of Laxton, Digby and Longford as at December 31, 1995 and the consolidated statement of operations for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Townships' management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the United Townships as at December 31, 1995 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with the accounting principles disclosed in note 1 to the consolidated financial statements.

Sneaker Day is back

For the second year in a row, Minden will celebrate Sneaker day.

Citizens are being urged to don their sneakers, this year on May 17, and take a healthy stroll.

The route will be a little longer than last year, but will include a walk through the downtown area.

Employees throughout Minden are being urged to wear sneakers that day as a sign that they want to follow a healthy lifestyle.

Sneaker Day is celebrated across Canada. It is organized by Health Canada to promote exercise and other activities which will help people lead healthier lives. It is part of Summeractive '96, which promotes activities from board sailing to horseback riding for health.

The purpose of the walk is not to raise money nor to compete. The aim is simply to get the message across that outdoor walking is a fun way to improve your health.

Approximately 80 people took part last year. Minden was the only community in the area to participate.

Lions collect more than 1,100 pairs of eyeglasses

The Minden Lions are proud to announce that Past President Greg Readman was elected District Governor of A-16 for the Lions Year 1996-97. Also, President Brian Moore was appointed District Treasurer for the same term. The convention was held in Oshawa and was well attended.

The district put on a blitz for old eyeglasses, hoping Waiting for spring

Residents of Staunworth Court are still waiting for spring to spring and are longing to see the flowers in bloom and the grass needing the mower over it. Patience wears a bit thin for most of our folks.

But the exercise class, darts, bingo and cards keep some of the muscles in working order. Some of those who are walkers will be looking forward to the upcoming Sneaker Day on Friday, May 17. Please, may we have a little sunshine and warmth for that day! After all, the event is to celebrate Summeractive '96.

Final goodbyes have been said to one of our very special friends at the Court—Jean Marsh died on April 22 after a courageous fight with cancer. We will all miss her and extend our sympathy to her husband Art and all members of the family.

We still have Len Trodd on the sick list, but his sense of humour is returning, so he should be back at the card table soon. Senior curling has come to a close so Katie Parker is getting ready for lawn bowling. The winter bowlers are ending their season with play-offs and banquets.

So, come on summer!

to collect 5000 to 6000 pairs. When the final figure was in, close to 35,000 pairs had been collected. Our Lions thank everyone who placed his or her glasses in our boxes. With your assistance, we were able to contribute

1,127 pairs. Please watch for our donation boxes in the following establishments: Dollo's IGA, McMahon Feeds 'N Needs, Highland Pharmacy and the Lions Medical Centre. This is an ongoing project that is very important to those in third world countries.

Well, it is that time of the year again. Watch for our Voluntary Toll Booth on Main Street on Saturday May 18. We'll be on duty from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. This is a voluntary toll with the money going to community projects.

Hey kids! Mark the first of July on your calendars. That is the date for the running of the Soapbox Derby. Pick up your entry forms now and get dad started on building your racer. The derby will take place on St. Germaine Street between Newcastle and Prince Streets between 9 a.m. and noon. Watch this newspaper for more information.

If you have received your information about the Lions Luxury Cash Draw 96/97 and have not put in your request for tickets as yet, please do so soon. Tickets will go on sale to the general public in the near future.

Remember Bingo every Thursday at the Minden Community Centre. Early Bird game 7 p.m. with regular games starting at 7:15 p.m. The jackpot is $500; regular games pay $60.

The Fibromyalgia Syndrome and Chronic Fatigue support group meeting will be held at the Roodenburg residence Monday, May 6 at 7 p.m. For more information call 705-489-1999 or 1-800-959-9098.

Euchre played April 18 at the Minden Legion gave wins to Ida Young and Roy McDonald for most lone hands; Marg McAfee for high score; Pat Rousselle and Gala Stamp for the low score. Other prizes went to Grace Dixon, Chris Taylor, Harry Stuart, Judy Girling and Don Sinclair. Meet at 7:15 p.m. Thursdays.

Minden and District Horticultural Society's next meeting will be held 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 7 at Hyland Crest. Guest speaker will be Dr. John Reynolds who is a most accomplished authority on worms. John is also a delightful speaker so you won't want to miss his talk and slide presentation.

While you are scheduling your events, don't forget "PHONEBUSTERS" on May 9 in Stanhope. Their guest, Barry Elliott, is also an excellent speaker. Phonebusters was launched in January 1993 by the OPP to educate the public about scam artists. A very worthwhile event - not to be missed. For time and more information, call M. Smith at 705-489-2973.

After a 3 week layoff, the Friendship

Club of St. Paul's got together last Monday for their euchre party. Gladys Wruth won the high score and Hazel Austin, the low. Pearl Cowan won the 50-50 draw and oh yes, Iris Taylor won most lone hands. (Iris gets unruly when we don't print her name). April 29, it's "bring-a-friend" to St. Paul's. Everyone is always welcome (at 1:30 p.m.). The Club wishes a speedy recovery to Nancy Gayton.

Last week we marked Earth Day, a day set aside in more than 100 countries, to get people thinking about how to make things greener and cleaner. Special events like "Trash Bash" take place where everyone joins in to clean up garbage in the community. That is certainly something we should be doing right here in Minden. When you walk around you can see just how it's gotten out of hand. Earth Day programmes continue year-round so why not make Minden the garden, not garbage, capital of Ontario?

The annual meeting of the Lawn Bowling Club will be held May 7, at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served. If you are interested in joining this club try your hand on April 30 at 7 p.m. in the old curling building on the fairgrounds.

Club 35 euchre party results from last Monday were: Helen Henderson and Murray Daniels for high score; Wally Harpur for most lone hands and Helen Lee for the 50-50 draw. Other winners were: Jim Foster, Gail Stamp and Peter Farr. Everyone welcome Mondays at 7:30 p.m., 9 km N. of Carnarvon. Partners are not required. Welcome back Snowbirds! The next wheels-to-meals dinner is noon Tuesday, May 7.

"Happy Birthday" to Hyland Crest residents Harold Sawyer and Beatrice Tustin who will celebrate their birthdays May 5 and 6.

The customer service award this week goes to Gary at the Rockcliffe Snack Bar. Do you know someone who deserves such an award? Give me a call.

Stanhope contract bridge winners from last Tuesday were: Brian (pay a happy buck) Adamson, Morris Hansen and Earl Hayne. A small slam was bid and made by Brian and Earl. Everyone is welcome Tuesdays at 1 p.m. Partners not required.

Messiah Choir "Elijah" performance is May 25 in the Haliburton Legion and May 26 in Archie Stouffer School, Minden. Tickets are only $10. Mark your calendars for this one!

Seniors bid euchre was played last Tuesday at the Minden Legion and Ann Barker, Ida Young and Norm Lee won the high score. Ida also won the moon-shot. Mary Wilson had the hidden score. Meet Tuesdays at 1:30 p.m.

The euchre card party in Lochlin last Tuesday gave most lone hands to Audrey Vick and high score to Orval Francis and Dorothy Milburn. Low scores were given to George Bartley and Betty Hicks. This Tuesday, meet in Gelert Community Centre, 7:30 p.m. All welcome.

Heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of Jean Marsh, Bob McCann and Noreen Basciano (sister of Dave Stevens) who passed away recently.

Euchre is played at the Noble Motel Wednesdays and last week Marcel Rousselle had the high score; Helen Mykytuk and Audrey Parker shared the second high while Barb Kenneth and Frieda Boyce split the most lone hands. You are welcome to join them at 7:30 p.m.

Health Corner

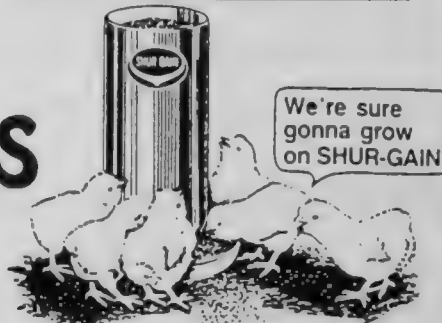

Your best back support is derived from your own back muscles. Faithful performance of back exercises often avoids the necessity of an external brace or corset. Back muscles can give you all the support needed if you strengthen them by routine performance of prescribed exercises. Follow the exercise routine given by your doctor. They have excellent charts. Gradually increase the frequency of your exercises as your condition improves. Take a warm shower or bath before exercising if your muscles are tight. Helpful hints for a healthy back next week.

IN MEMORIAM

CALVERLEY, Catherine
(Cath) - Lost to us May 3, 1992. It is sad to walk the road alone. Instead of side by side, But to all there comes a moment, When the ways of life divide. You gave me years of happiness. Then came sorrows and tears, But you left me with beautiful memories. I will treasure through the years. Love, Jack.
